

One of the wisest sayings I know is never to follow the crowd.

But sometimes, that saying doesn't work.

For instance, let's assume you want to fly from say, Chicago to New York.

If people are giving good reports about a particular carrier, wouldn't you choose to fly with them?

So in this case, you'd see that following the crowd is a wise decision.

I'm sure you're wondering why I'm saying this.

Well, as I write this, I want to share several positive reviews that were posted on Trustpilot about REI Content Starter Pack.
